A FAIR OFFER

A man who had purchased some currant buns at a bakery was distressed, on starting to eat one, to find that it contained a fly. Returning to the bakery, he made an indignant complaint, demanding another bun in place of the inhabited one.

"I'm sorry, sir," said the saleswoman, "I can't give you another bun, but if you will bring back the fly I will exchange it for a currant.

HER STRING

Miss Rand — Why, Kate, how do you do? I haven't seen you for several years. Caught a husband yet?

Mrs. Reno — Goodness, yes. I've caught three and let two go. — Boston Transcript.
